

Ottawa Mortgage Fall Blueprint

FEATURED SPEAKER

ROB CARRICK

Canada's Trusted Personal Finance Explainer-in-Chief

We're excited to welcome Rob Carrick to the stage at Ottawa Mortgage Fall Blueprint.

Previously The Globe and Mail's personal finance columnist for 27 years, turned speaker, writer and top consultant specializing in personal finance strategy.

He's seen it all... from bull markets, recessions and market crashes, a global financial crisis, a pandemic, trade war, rising housing market, personal debt loads, roaring inflation and retirement concerns... he applies economics, demographics and social trends to help you navigate it!

NAVIGATING THE NEW MORTGAGE LANDSCAPE: AFFORDABILITY, RATES & THE ROAD TO HOMEOWNERSHIP

What does the future of homeownership look like for Canadians? Join us for an engaging Fireside Chat exploring the issues currently shaping our industry and impacting the stakeholders we serve, including mortgage agents and brokers, real estate professionals, lenders, and consumers.

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:

40-Year Amortizations: Could longer amortizations be introduced for first-time homebuyers, and what could this mean for housing affordability and accessibility?

Bond Yields & Interest Rates: Why are bond yields continuing to rise despite ongoing economic challenges, and what can we expect moving forward?

Millennials & Homeownership: What practical pathways and opportunities exist for younger Canadians looking to enter the housing market?

The Affordability Gap: With household incomes struggling to keep pace with the rising cost of housing and everyday living, where do we go from here?
